Improve Employee Job Performance.

In a world of ever-increasing dependency on technology, organizations must provide their employees with both basic and job-specific computer training. However, training doesn't have to be expensive.

The OHFA Learning Center offers the following courses at reasonable prices:

- Employee Assessment Test
$75 per person
- Nan McKay Training & Certification
$525 per person for course materials and testing
$75 per group for training and facilities

We are open to discussing other training opportunities with you. Just ask!
